INTRODUCTION

Rugs are one of the things in your home that you don't know you want, until you see a floor with a great one on it. Or until you step on your floor in the winter in Pennsylvania.

Rugs have been around for thousands of years with the earliest one known going back 2,400 years!

Rugs are amazing not only because of how functional they are, but because of the tremendous pop and pizzazz they bring to any room they get put into!
